Minimum initial investment and ongoing account balance

The minimum initial investment and ongoing account balance is $2,000.

Processing transactions

Investment and withdrawal requests can be made through our online services at anytime, however, we may not be able to process some requests on the same business day¹ if they are submitted after 5.00pm (Sydney time). Where an investment or withdrawal request is made after 5.00pm (Sydney time), it may be processed on the following business day.

1. Business day means a day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which banks are open for general banking business in Sydney.

2. © Registered to BPAY Pty Limited ABN 69 079 137 518.

If your withdrawal request would result in your BT Cash Hub balance falling below the minimum account balance of $2,000, we may pay your withdrawal request, transfer the remaining account balance (less any applicable deductions) to your linked account and close your BT Cash Hub.

Westpac payment services

The ability to pay third parties – such as friends, companies or utilities (other than payments to one of your linked bank accounts) – using BPAY, direct debit or direct credit is provided by Westpac and is referred to as ‘the Westpac payment services’. If you’d like to know about the terms and conditions under which Westpac provides this service please see the Additional Information Booklet and Westpac Payment Services Terms and Conditions.

Income distributions

BT Cash distributes net income to you based on your BT Cash Hub’s daily account balance and the declared distribution rate applicable to your BT Cash Hub, divided by 365 or 366 days in a leap year. This income is accrued daily and paid to your account balance monthly. Income distributions are rounded down to whole cents.

The distribution rates are declared by BTFM, are variable and are subject to change without notice. BTFM may declare different distribution rates for different investors.

Distribution rates are available online at panorama.com.au/invest/documents.

4. Risks of managed investment schemes

All investments carry risk. The likely rate of return and the risk of losing money are different for each managed investment scheme as different strategies carry different levels of risk depending on the underlying mix of assets that make up each fund or investment strategy.

Those assets with potentially the highest long-term return may also have the highest risk of losing money in the shorter term.

The significant risks for BT Cash are:

- > Interest rate risk: The risk that future returns on BT Cash may be adversely impacted by changes in interest rates.
- > Credit risk: The risk that Westpac may fail to meet its obligation to pay interest and repay deposits held by BT Cash.
- > Liquidity risk: The risk that BT Cash would not have sufficient liquid assets to meet immediate withdrawal requests.
- > Concentration risk: The risk that poor investment performance by a single investment or group of investments significantly affects overall performance of BT Cash. The investment of the assets of BT Cash is concentrated in deposits with Westpac.

- > Taxation and regulatory risk: The risk that changes to taxation, regulation or legislation could have a negative impact on the returns from BT Cash.
- > Operational risk: The risk that administration and supporting systems may not always work as they should.

Risk can be managed but can't be completely eliminated. It's important to understand that:

- > the value of investments will vary
- > investment returns will vary and future returns may be different from past returns
- > returns are not guaranteed and there is always the chance you may lose money on an investment
- > laws affecting your investment in a managed investment scheme may change over time.

The level of risk that suits you will depend on a range of factors including your age, investment time frame, where other parts of your wealth are invested and your risk tolerance (how comfortable you are with the possibility of losing some of your money in some years). If you would like to know more about the risks of investing, or to discuss your personal risk tolerance, you should consult a licensed financial adviser.

6. Fees and costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your fund balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether the features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You may be able to negotiate to pay lower management costs. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (<http://www.moneysmart.gov.au>) has a managed investment fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

To see how fees and costs may affect your account balance, use the calculator on the ASIC website at www.moneysmart.gov.au/tools-and-resources/calculators-and-tools/managed-funds-calculator.

This section provides summary information about the main fees and costs that you may be charged in BT Cash. These fees and costs may be deducted from your account or from investment returns.

You should read all the information about fees and costs because it is important that you understand their impact on your investment. You can also use this information to compare the fees and costs with those of other simple managed investment products.

Warning: If you consult a financial adviser, you may have to pay them a fee/s. You should refer to the Statement of Advice that the adviser gives you for details of the fees.

TYPE OF FEE OR COST ¹	AMOUNT
Fees when your money moves in or out of the fund²
Establishment fee	Not applicable
Contribution³ fee	Not applicable
Withdrawal fee	Not applicable
Exit fee	Not applicable
Management costs
The fees and costs for managing your investment	The management fee in any period is the difference between: <ul style="list-style-type: none">> the total return (being the income) earned on the assets of BT Cash; and> the total income distributed to the investors in BT Cash. The total income distributed to investors will be based on the distribution rates determined by BTFM from time to time. Distribution rates are variable and may change without notice. The constitution of BT Cash provides that we are entitled to take the whole return from BT Cash's assets as a management fee. When we distribute income to investors, we will waive a portion of this entitlement.

BTFM may change or introduce fees without obtaining your consent. However, BTFM will give you 30 days' prior notice before making changes to the way the management fee is calculated which may result in an increase in the fee or introducing any new fees.

1. Unless otherwise stated, all fees quoted in this PDS are quoted on a GST inclusive basis and net of any applicable Reduced Input Tax Credits.

2. In this 'Fees and costs' section, 'fund' refers to BT Cash.

3. In this 'Fees and costs' section, 'contribution' refers to an investment into BT Cash.

Example of annual fees and costs for the fund

This table gives an example of how the fees and costs of the fund can affect your investment over a one year period. You should use this table to compare this product with other managed investment products.

EXAMPLE – BT CASH BALANCE OF $50,000 WITH A CONTRIBUTION OF $5,000 DURING YEAR

Contribution fees	0%	For every additional $5,000 you put in, you will be charged $0.
Plus Management costs	1% ¹	And , for every $50,000 you have in the fund you will be charged $500 each year.
Equals Cost of fund		If you had an investment of $50,000 at the beginning of the year and you put in an additional $5,000 during that year, you would be charged fees of: $500² What it costs you will depend on the investment option you choose and the fees you negotiate with your fund or financial adviser.³

MORE INFORMATION

You should read the important information about fees and charges before making a decision.

Go to the Additional Information Booklet at panorama.com.au/invest/documents and look for the heading 'Fees and costs'. The material relating to fees and charges may change between the time when you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

7. How managed investment schemes are taxed

Warning: Investing in managed investment schemes, such as BT Cash, is likely to have consequences that may affect your current or future tax position.

BT Cash generally distributes all of its taxable income to investors each year. This means that under current Australian tax legislation, BT Cash is not liable for income tax and doesn't pay tax on behalf of Australian resident investors. Your share of the income made by BT Cash each year becomes part of your assessable income. Income distributed to non-resident investors may be subject to Australian withholding tax.

For your information, the taxable income of BT Cash will consist of interest it earns on interest-bearing deposits and income from other investments, less management fees it pays to BTFM. Income distributions by BT Cash are credited to investors' accounts, and will retain their character as interest.

As the Australian taxation system is complex and different investors have different circumstances, you are strongly advised to seek professional tax advice before investing in BT Cash.

GST

Please note:

- Distribution income is not subject to GST
- The management fees payable to BTFM are subject to GST

You should read the important information about how managed investment schemes are taxed before making a decision.

Go to the Additional Information Booklet at panorama.com.au/invest/documents and look for the heading 'How managed investment schemes are taxed'. The material relating to how managed investment schemes are taxed may change between the time when you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

1. This is provided only as an indicative example of the management fee which may be charged. It is not an estimate and the actual fee will vary.
2. This example assumes that no income distributions have been paid during the year and the contribution was made on the last day of the year. This fee is deducted from the total returns earned by BTFM on the assets of BT Cash. It is not deducted from your account balance.
3. This is prescribed disclosure wording. BT Cash is a single investment option. You are not able to negotiate the management costs which apply.

8. How to apply

You should read this PDS, the Additional Information Booklet and the Westpac Payment Services Terms and Conditions. The PDS, the Additional Information Booklet and the Westpac Payment Services Terms and Conditions may be updated or replaced from time to time and you should ensure you read the current version before investing.
