Where charged on specific account types, a separate fee applies to the primary and each sub-account. Unless the 'coin counting' or 'cash handling' fee applies.  Excludes deposits by customers under 18 years of age. The scenario that would deem this fee applicable is where you regularly deposit cash to an Auswide Bank account and subsequently transfer all, or the substantial portion of, the account balance to another financial institution.

Based on the date the cheque is debited from your account. A dishonour fee applies when there are insufficient 'clear' funds in the account to be debited - refer page 4. After receiving your written request we will advise our requirements and confirm whether the cheque has been presented to your account. If the cheque has already been presented to your account, we will be unable to proceed with your request. When a sweep occurs the fee will be levied against the account's being swept from. If sweeps are required from more than one account to cover insufficient funds each account that is being swept from will attract the fee. The financial institution from which you are remitting funds may charge a fee.

Many overseas banks will levy other processing charges that may vary between banks and countries which will result in the beneficiary receiving a lesser amount than transmitted.

Cheque deposits will only be accepted if they are made payable to the name of the cardholder; to Auswide Bank for the credit of the cardholder; to Auswide Bank or to Cash. - ✖ It is your responsibility (at your discretion) to recover this fee from the cheque-writer.
- ✖ To help avoid dishonour fee for cheque payments, we recommend that you ensure you have sufficient "clear funds" in your account prior to writing a cheque. To help avoid reject fees for pre-arranged date sensitive electronic payments (eg. direct debits), we recommend that you have sufficient clear funds in your account at least 2 working days before the expected debit date. Another method of avoiding some of these fees is to arrange for an automatic sweep from another Auswide Bank account to the account that is to be debited with your cheque, direct debit or external electronic payment.
